THAT is exactly why we do these summits - informing alliance on a global platform

02:18:48 Beverly Sealey: Given our knowledge of all of these problems, what can/should we do to stop these practices other than just to talk about them. Advocacy and Social Action efforts? Not research and scholarship, publications.

02:20:40 Janet Stellway: Thanks everyone for this informative presentations. unfortunately I have to go to a meeting now. Have a good day or night. I hope this is recorded.

02:22:40 Beau Stubblefield-Tave: We must translate research into practice and policy. Advocacy and change are happening at community, state and national levels and must be increased. The next election cycle will bear a HUGE opportunity. Biden has made progress that must continue. Republican garners and legislatures have also reversed much progress-Issues of reproductive health and medicaid restrictions are just two examples. When a governor is willing to refuse free health dollars for political reasons and thus harm their people's health...

02:24:41 Beau Stubblefield-Tave: Thank you Dr. Ndimgande for addressing the long term impact of apartheid and racism, including internalized racism.

02:25:13 Shelly Nauertz: Thank you esteemed panelists for sharing your deep knowledge and brilliance with us today. I look forward to being able to share this powerful information with my colleagues as we work to work toward becoming an anti-racist healthcare system!

02:25:42 Megen Boysen: Thank you for a wonderful summit. Wonderful presenters and information. I'm fortunate enough to get to work with Dr. Sederstrom!

02:25:51 Carole Copeland Thomas She/Her/Hers: Rev. Dr.'s Ndimande's Presentation reminds me of those warriors like the late Steve Biko. May he rest in power!

02:26:08 Beau Stubblefield-Tave: Your actions speak so loudly I cannot hear your words. Without implementation, promises and plans are worthless.
